Although Chinese burglars may employ peculiar methods in the pursuit of their vocation the efficiency of these artists is not questioned by Dr. and Mrs. C. O. Patten, who arrived at San Francisco recently from Hongkong.

During the 18 months the San Francisco dentist and his 19-year-old wife remained in the Orient they experienced two robberies which left them without a single one of the many valuable presents they received when they were married just before sailing for the Far East.
